LONG-REINING WITH DOUBLE DAN HORSEMANSHIP

Safe, Controlled Groundwork Techniques to Build an Effective Partnership on the Ground and Success in the Saddle

by DAN JAMES AND DAN STEERS

Trafalgar Square Books is pleased to announce Long-Reining with Double Dan Horsemanship, written by Australian equestrian stars Dan James and Dan Steers of Double Dan Horsemanship.

Whether starting a young horse, taking training to the next level with a made horse, or addressing training or behavioral issues on the ground, equestrians aim to achieve softness, connection, and partnership that is a harmonious relationship with the horse. Dan James and Dan Steers now offer a new approach to the classic technique used to cultivate fine riding horses for centuries: long-reining. And even better, they've broken down their method into 20 easy-to-understand lessons. Here you'll get step-by-step explanations supplemented with beautiful full color photographs, many of which feature Dan James' celebrity Quarter Horse colt "Swampy." The result is a collection of safe groundwork solutions suitable for every discipline.

DOUBLE DAN HORSEMANSHIP is quickly becoming a household name in the equine industry. The duo have been noted for performing at every major Royal show in Australia and many large equine events in the United States. They have been crowd favorites in the opening ceremonies of the World Equestrian Games, Australia's Got Talent, and the Australian National Cutting Horse Futurities.

As one of the hottest-selling equine acts in the industry today, they continue to expand their horizons.

"If you have ever seen the Double Dans perform a long-reining demonstration, I am sure that you have been amazed by their skill and talent...this is a great step-by-step guide to help you, with lots of terrific exercises!"
